The Ukrainian Bar Association invites to the First Investment Forum

The Ukrainian Bar Association (UBA) invites you to the First Investment Forum, which will be held on June 6-7, 2024, in offline (Kyiv, Ukraine) and online formats.

About the UBA: The Ukrainian Bar Association (<https://uba.ua/eng/>) is a nationwide non-governmental organization founded in 2002, uniting over 8,000 legal professionals into a strong and influential community that serves as a powerful voice for the legal profession in Ukraine. The UBA aims to develop the legal profession, improve legislation, implement ethical standards, protect the professional rights of its members, and advocate for human rights in general.

About the event: The First Investment Forum will be a platform for discussing prospective investment opportunities and addressing legal challenges in sectors crucial for the sustainable development of Ukraine.

Key stakeholders will gather at the Forum: foreign investors, business leaders, government officials, legal professionals.

The event aims to:

- highlight significant legal aspects influencing business and investments in Ukraine;
- deeply analyze the Ukraine's investment climate;
- dispel common myths about conducting business in Ukraine;
- discuss the preparation of Ukrainian businesses for European Union integration;
- focus on recent legal improvements in sectors such as agriculture, extractive industries, energy, and defense;
- identify existing legal issues and present practical solutions.

Event dates, venue, working languages:

- 6 June, 2024 — online (Zoom); English only;
- 7 June, 2024 — Dallas Hall, Hilton Kyiv Hotel, 30 T. Shevchenko Blvd., Kyiv, Ukraine / online (Zoom); Ukrainian (without translation), English.
